

Presidential Spokesman Commends NASENI Boss For Innovation and Staff Welfare

The EVC/CEO of NASENI, Mr. Khalil Suleiman Halilu (R) and the Special Adviser to the President on Information and Strategy, Chief Bayo Onanuga, during the "Good Vibe Committee" Special Day and Staff Welfare Outing at the Agency's Headquarters on Wednesday, May 7, 2025

The Special Adviser to the President on Information and Strategy, Chief Bayo Onanuga, has commended the Executive Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the National Agency for Science and Engineering Infrastructure (NASENI), Mr. Khalil Suleiman Halilu and his management for the Agency's innovations and forward-thinking approach to industrial manufacturing.

Chief Onanuga gave the commendation during a visit to NASENI headquarters on Wednesday, May 7, 2025.

Mr Onanuga praised Mr. Halilu for his leadership style and the strides made so far by the Agency in the areas of science, innovation, and engineering. "I have seen your plans, I have seen the innovations, the industrial equipment, and many other impressive things. I'm really happy with what NASENI is doing," Onanuga said.

He also applauded Halilu for fostering staff engagement and welfare, noting that such efforts are crucial for organizational growth and delivery on tasks. "When staff are well cared for and given time to relax, the Agency will achieve even more," he added.

Chief Onanuga further encouraged the EVC to increase his presence in traditional media to showcase NASENI's achievements to the broader Nigerian public.

In his remarks during the "Good Vibe Committee" Special Day and Staff Welfare Outing, Mr. Halilu thanked members of staff while emphasizing the importance of maintaining a positive work environment despite economic challenges. "Even if one travels abroad, the vibe might not be there; we must therefore create and sustain our own positive vibe at home," he said.

He noted that the Agency has a calendar full of activities in 2025, including sports and innovation focused events.

Mr. Halilu also reiterated his commitment to making NASENI an employer of choice, stating that other government agencies are beginning to emulate the Agency's model. "We will never get tired of doing good for our staff and for the country," he affirmed.

Earlier, in her welcome address, the Chairperson of the Good Vibes Committee, Mrs. Grace Magaji, appreciated EVC for supporting the event. She acknowledged his commitment to staff well-being and fostering social interaction within the Agency. She also thanked staff for participating in the feedback process and promised to convey their suggestions to the EVC.
